EALING West Med Macro Regional Workshop

EUROPEAN FLAGSHIP ACTION FOR COLD IRONING IN PORTS

The electrification of maritime transport is a key challenge to move towards a more competitive and sustainable TEN-T Maritime Network in the future.

The session will be focused on presenting the first results coming from the Technical Workshops and Stakeholders Consultations with Ports, Shipping Lines and Classification Societies carried out in the first part of the Action. It will also feature an open discussion with industry players concerning pros and cons about the OPS adoption considering administrative, financial and technical aspects.

Chairman: Panayotis Zacharioudakis, Managing Director, OceanFinance
