Electrification in Ports and Vessels – Challenges and Sustainable Solutions in Europe

EALING Eastern Mediterranean Stakeholder Workshop

Posidonia Seminar Room 2A - Athens Metropolitan Expo S.A.

7th June

12:45 – 14:30 CEST

Emissions reduction at the ship-port interface is one of the key drivers to reach the IMO 2030 and 2050 decarbonisation goals and to face the key challenges of the EU Green Deal: regulatory, technical, operational and economic actions to reduce GHG emissions are required to move towards a lower-carbon future.

Establishing of a suitable framework based on EU and national legislations for a harmonised European approach to the Onshore Power Supply (Cold Ironing) is at the heart of EALING Action. During the event the results coming from the EALING Activity 1 “Harmonised framework for the electrification of participating TEN-T maritime ports”, Activity 2 “Maritime fleet adaptation” and Activity 3 “Technical studies for the electrification infrastructure of the participating TEN-T maritime ports” will be deepened and discussed together with industry players involved in building a more competitive and sustainable TEN-T Maritime Network.
